

Getting Ready to Work in a Waiver Community: Some Practical Considerations January 23, 2012

9:00 – 12:00

Location:

The Beacon Center, 500 Nash Medical Arts Mall, Rocky Mount, NC

This afternoon, interactive session will provide guidance and advice to providers regarding what to expect and how to prepare for working within a Waiver site. The presenter will focus on practical and strategic considerations for The Beacon Center providers.

Faculty: Niels Eskelsen CPA, MBA and Dan Zorn, Families Together, Inc.

Niels Eskelsen has been a consultant for over 20 years in public behavioral healthcare. From 2005 – 2010 Niels served as the Chief Financial Officer/Director of Business Operations for PBH (Piedmont Behavioral Health).

Dan Zorn is the founder of Families Together, Inc., a CABHA based in Asheville, NC. Dan is now consulting with numerous provider agencies in North Carolina and Virginia.

Objectives: In this session participants will:

- Review what you have already done to prepare without knowing it
- Learn to self-evaluate your agencies readiness
- Consider and discuss implications of the provider selection process
- Anticipate some of the IT demands for work in the new environment
- Learn some of the unexpected advantages for providers in a Waiver Community

Target Audience: This session is open only to agencies providing services within The Beacon Center area. Clinical professionals, agency directors, or others interested in preparation for work in a MCO. Only two people per agency are permitted to register for this event.

This training is provided by The Beacon Center and there is no charge for agencies within The Beacon Center catchment area.

This training program is a collaborative effort among The Beacon Center and the NC Council of Community a provider of administrative services.
